Foreword

Memories of our past years at Seven Springs linger in our minds as we, the Seniors of 1963, complete our school days here. These days have been full of joys as well as sorrows.

We extend our thanks to you, who have bought this book, our fifteenth volume of the SESPRISCHOAN. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy every page of it.

During the toils of gathering the material, we have sought and received much help and co-operation from many people. We are especially grateful to our advertisers and school officials who were so very helpful. We also owe especial thanks to our parents for their help.

As you turn these pages may pleasant memories of this school year be yours.

Dedication

MR. GERALD WATERS

We, the graduating class of Seven Springs High School gratefully dedicate this sixteenth volume of the SESPRIS-CHOAN to the one whose unselfishness, kindness and understanding have always been a source of inspiration to us. The teaching career of this person has gained many friends by the never-tiring willingness to help students as well as the community.

In dedicating this annual we are doing so little for a friend as well as a beloved teacher who has done so much for us. We are proud to dedicate it to MR. GERALD WHITFIELD WATERS.

Mr. Waters in his classroom.

In Appreciation

MR. BENNY RHODES

He has been with us only two years, but we have all grown to love him. His wisdom and understanding have led us up the long road to maturity.

Through his knowledge and guidance, we have learned the true meaning of sportsmanship, loyalty, and school spirit.

He has taught us to play the game fairly whether we win or not, for the real winner is the one who takes a defeat cheerfully.

In appreciation for his guidance and understanding, we, the Senior Class of 1963, say thanks to Coach Lonnie Benjamin Rhodes, III.

Class History

As we pause to look back over our highschool days, we remember many events which helped to make them pleasant and happy.

The history as it is written by the Seniors of 1963 is exciting enough for a T.V. program entitled "The Class of '63." Let us now review the program.

The program was made up of four short acts and three brief commercials, during which fun was advertised. The program was written by the Seniors of '63. It was directed by Mr. Mark Herring, Jr. with the help of the parents and friends of the Seniors. It had an outstanding all star cast. The scenes took place in the Seven Springs High School, its classrooms, auditorium and gymnasium.

As the program began, thirty actors called Freshmen took their places on the screen. One of the most important events in this act was the election of class officers who were: Merle Thompson, President; Johnny Raiford, Vice-President; Geraldine Strickland, Secretary; Betty Lou Mazingo, Treasurer; Barbara Adams and Jerry Sutton, Reporters.

After our first brief commercial, we saw the second act. There were fewer actors because of difficulties beyond our control. The first event of this act was the election of class officers. They were: Johnny Raiford, President; Wayne Edwards, Vice-President; Barbara Adams, Secretary; Geraldine Strickland, Treasurer; Jerry Sutton and Violet Sasser, Reporters. Another highlight of this act was that many of our cast because of outstanding ability made the Beta Club.

After another short commercial during which all had fun, we resumed our program with even fewer actors. The actors were now known as Juniors. They elected officers for the third act. They were: Johnny Raiford, President; Barbara Adams, Vice-President; Gay Adams, Secretary; Betty Lou Mazingo, Treasurer; Violet Sasser and Jesse Outlaw, Reporters. The cast worked hard to make this a good act. They raised money in various ways. This they used to give a banquet to the Seniors of 1962. The theme of the banquet was "Song-In-My-Heart" which was carried out with a pink and white decorations. We also presented our class play, "Everything Happens to Us" which was a great success. Several juniors received special honors during commencement. The marshals were Jesse Outlaw, Jr., chief, Gay Adams, Geraldine Strickland, William Price and Violet Sasser.

After a final commercial, we all returned with a cast of twenty to begin our Senior year at Seven Springs High School. We elected our class officers as follows: Johnny Raiford, President; Gay Adams, Vice-President; Barbara Adams, Secretary; Betty Lou Mazingo, Treasurer; Doris Williams and Jerry Sutton, Reporters.

One of the most thrilling scenes in this act was the day we received our class rings. We chose two new members of our cast. They were our mascots, Emily Coor and Jack Ward. We chose blue and white for our class colors, the gladiolus for our flower; and "The higher we climb the brighter the view" for our class motto.

Another exciting day was the one on which we elected our Homecoming Queen and attendants. Barbara Adams received the honor of queen and Betty Mazingo and Merle Thompson the honor of attendants.

Our Halloween king and queen were Gary Sanderson and Violet Sasser.

The banquet, given to us by the juniors in early May, was a beautiful affair which was enjoyed by all.

The last scene in which all the actors appeared was graduation. Each senior appeared briefly before the crowded audience and received his reward for a job well done. This scene was a little sad for we knew we had completed one of the happiest periods of our lives. We left the program with a feeling of accomplishment and looked forward to the new program called THE FUTURE.

Last Will and Testament

We the Seniors of 1963, in the town of Seven Springs, the county of Wayne, the state of North Carolina being in good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby make this our Last Will and Testament.

To the faculty members we leave our very kindest regards and our sincere gratitude for their unflinching kindness and aid. We would also like to leave our deepest appreciation for their efforts toward increasing our knowledge.

To our beloved sponsor, Mrs. Imogene Price, we leave our apologies for all the worries we have caused her, also we leave our love and sincere thanks for being so kind and understanding with us.

To the Juniors we leave the satisfaction of knowing that they will soon be almost as important as we are now.

To our good friends, the Sophomore class, we leave our patience. It will be found useful as the only means by which they can envy the Seniors.

To the young and unsophisticated Freshmen we leave our ability to get along with the teachers.

We bestow the following individual and personal effects with the hope that they will be used wisely:

- I, WAYNE WILLIAMSON, do will my chemistry book to anyone who is unlucky enough to take chemistry.
- I, DORIS WILLIAMS, will a few of my good times in high school to Howard Lupton.
- I, PATTY CAUDELL, will my ability to graduate to James Baker in hopes he will use it.
- I, MERLE THOMPSON, will my chief cheerleading suit to Pansy Price, in hopes that someday it will fit her.
- I, JOHNNY RAIFORD, will my ability to stay up late and drive a school bus and play basketball to anyone who thinks they can make it.
- I, SYLVIA PARKS, will all my books to Ruth Williamson, in hopes that she will use them.
- I, WILLIAM PRICE, will my ability to pass chemistry to any poor soul who may take it.
- I, JOYCE DAVENPORT, will to next years Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen the fun I've had in my four years of high school.
- I, GERALDINE STRICKLAND, do will my ability to get extra credit in typing to Mary Martin in hopes that she won't have to do as much work to get it as I did.
- I, VIOLET SASSER, will my ability to have a good time and still keep up my grades to Eugene Sasser.
- I, BOBBY SINGLETON, will my ability to go steady, without breaking up to Royce Potter.
- I, BECKY HERRING, will my history book and all my notes to any poor soul who gets it.
- I, JERRY SUTTON, will my ability to skip school and cut class without getting caught to anyone that can do it.
- I, BETTY MOZINGO, will my position on the basketball team, along with a few of the good times to Barbara Daly.
- I, MARSTON BARWICK, will my ability to go with the girls I want to go with to Lester Cruse.
- I, JESSE OUTLAW, JR., will my ability to do as I please, and my love for my classring to a certain girl at Brogden.
- I, DURWOOD WHITMAN, will my ability to graduate in six years to Freddy Shiver.
- I, GAYE ADAMS, will my ability to pass geometry to anyone who has little enough sense to take it.
- I, GARY SANDERSON, will my good times in high school to any freshman boy who thinks he can get away with it.
- I, BARBARA ADAMS, will my position on the basketball team to Jewel Adams, in hopes she will enjoy it as much as I have.

This document is signed and sealed by the members of the Senior Class.

Class Prophecy

As I read over my past year's edition of the RAMBLING SPECIAL, I see many of my former classmates' names and pictures.

The first name I see is MARSTON BARWICK'S. He has just become a highway patrolman. He will be put with Sergeant BOBBY SINGLETON, who is in command of the Patrol Station in Seven Springs.

Next I see that JESSE OUTLAW, JR. has got another contract to design a bank for JERRY SUTTON. They are doing very well in their businesses.

As I turn the page I see SYLVIA PARK'S picture. She has just developed another hair style. I see that MERLE THOMPSON is one of her models.

I also see GARY SANDERSON'S name. He has just finished another picture for Warner Brothers. Incidentally WILLIAM PRICE, a C.P.A., is his business manager.

I see DURWOOD WHITMAN has just bought the subway that goes from Seven Springs to La Grange. VIOLET SASSER is his private secretary. They have their pictures on the front page.

I also see a picture of BARBARA ADAM'S basketball team. They have not lost a game this year.

WAYNE WILLIAMSON'S picture is on the sport's page also. He just won a gold medal for winning the one hundred yard dash.

As I read on I see MRS. GAYE ADAMS and MRS. BETTY LOU LANCASTER'S pictures. Gaye, who is the Chief of Staff at Seven Springs General Hospital is handing Betty her Doctor's Degree of Pediatrics.

Looking on through the edition, I see JOYCE DAVENPORT and PATTY CAUDELL'S names. They saved a baby's life at Seven Springs General Hospital where they are registered nurses.

On the ads section I see that GERALDINE STRICKLAND has hats on sale. She is the owner of the Style Shop in town.

I also see BECKY HERRING'S picture with her husband. They own a big cattle ranch out in Texas now.

It is about time for the press to start on tomorrow's paper. I see DORIS WILLIAMS, who writes the gossip column has just come into my office. Now I must start on tomorrow's edition of RAMBLING SPECIAL, because I am the owner and editor of it.

Class Poem

Tonight's the night we've been waiting for,
For such a long, long time
And yet we know we'll shed some tears
For what we must leave behind.
We've shared many joys throughout the years
Along with the sorrow too
We find it amazing, the things we did
As we from childhood grew.
So to thee we say our last farewell
Our dearest friend of all
The things we've learned and the things we've shared
Will remain in the memory filled walls.
Yes, we're leaving dear ole Seven Springs High
And yet in our hearts we know That the memory of the joys we've shared
Will linger where'er we go.

BETTER WORK MAKES BETTER JOBS

You can't keep a good man down is an adage which holds water.

Highschool graduates are all good men, filled with enthusiasm and the desire to make good in life. You can put 10 high school graduates to work in the same department of a company - each doing the same kind of work and with the same opportunity to learn and advance. At the end of a year, two or three will be at the top of their group - the rest will be where they started. Why? Because real value always rises to the top.

The more you put into a job, the more you get out of it. You must give more to your jobs before you can expect more out of them. Maintain at all times a positive, constructive, progressive attitude toward your job. Always think in terms of how things can be done - never in terms of why they cannot.

Autographs

I have enjoyed this year very much, but I thought the best part was to have a lot of fun this year with you.

Good luck,
Mr. Watson

I have enjoyed having you as a teacher more than anyone I have ever had

The students will miss you very much and we will miss you too.

Mr. Watson
I think that you top as a teacher.
Please stay with

WINSTON SALEM, N. C.

Mr. Waters,
It has been a nice to have you as a teacher. You have been very nice to me in every especially when my Dad was in the hospital. You have given me many laughs in school and out of school. I am very glad that you were the one this annual was dedicated to you. Catch all the fish you can, especially the big ones. Miss your next year,
Johnny Rufford

Mr. Waters,
I have always loved you as a teacher.
You are one of the most understanding teachers I have ever known. You have been a friend that I will never forget. You were always a friend to your class at all times. I love you "A Friend"
Marston

Mr. Waters
It was a pleasure having you as a teacher the first three years of high school. I had many good times with you.
Hope you the best of luck in fishing and don't catch them all. We had our good time and had ours to most of them. A Friend
Jerry Sutton

Mr. Waters,
I just can't express to you what your friendship has meant to me as a teacher. You were one of the best teachers that I have ever had, I wish you could have been with us this past year, we really did miss you as a teacher, but you still remained the same old good friend, I hope it will always be that way.

always a friend,
Barbara Adams

Mr. Waters,
You are the friendless and the most understanding teacher I have ever had.
I really enjoyed the subjects you taught me, and will miss seeing you next year.
A Friend
Bobby Singleton
